

2019 NWFSC WINTER MEETING

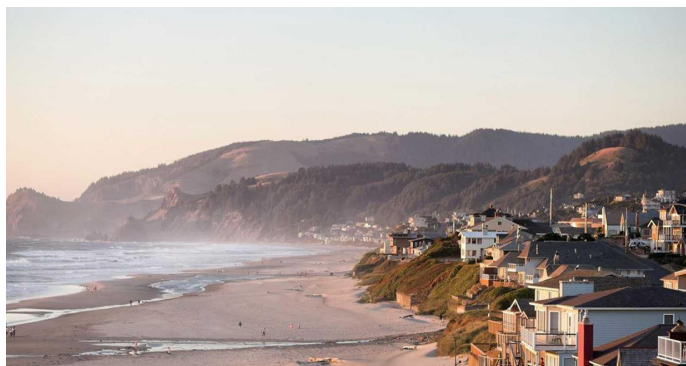

MEETING

In lieu of a distinct theme, this winter we will highlight YOUR most recent and/or most interesting projects! Whether it's new research, new methods, or a compelling case study, thank you for sharing it with us!

LOCATION

This year's meeting will be held at Surftides an oceanfront retreat in the heart of Lincoln City, Oregon. There is a block of rooms held for conference participants under "PNW Forest Soils Council." Visit their website for contact and other info:
