

Northwest Forest Soils Council Winter Meeting
March 4th and 5th, 2020
Weyerhaeuser NR Company
505 N Pearl St, Centralia, WA 98531

Meeting Agenda
Wednesday, March 4th, 2020

8:00	Welcome Coffee	Weyerhaeuser
8:30	Introductions & Opening Remarks	Jason James (NWFSC President)
9:00	Soil disturbance recovery after timber harvests on the Malheur National Forest, Oregon	Leslee Crawford
9:40	Impacts of manual and cable-assisted mechanized felling on soils, erosion, and productivity: A case study in southern Oregon	Woodam Chung, Brett Morrissette & Jeff Hatten
10:20	BREAK
10:30	The areal extent of skid trail impacts on bulk density	Debbie Page-Dumroese
11:10	Group Discussion / Poster Presentations
12:00	LUNCH
13:00	Long-term effects of organic matter removals and vegetation control on aboveground and belowground nutrients and growth at three Douglas-fir forests	Kim Littke
13:40	A meta-analysis of the effects of Long-Term Soil Productivity (LTSP) treatments on soil carbon	Jason James
14:20	Group Discussion
15:00	BREAK
15:10	Soil water repellency responses to burn severity in the Pacific Northwest	Jalene Weatherholt
15:30	OSU Extension Update: Best Management Practices for Maintaining Productivity in the Douglas-fir Region	Tom Terry
15:50	Group Discussion
16:30	Business Meeting	Jason James & Nicole Jacobsen
17:30	Off-site Social	McMenamins

Thursday, March 5th, 2019

8:00	Depart on Field Tour - Fall River, etc.	Weyerhaeuser
16:00	Return	